

- Focused and independent client approach.

BOSC establishes specific objectives, constraints and portfolio strategies in order to manage client investments in the most prudent fashion. Furthermore, a target asset allocation for each client account will create detailed parameters with regard to investment policies and procedures.