

Standard 2: Integrity of Capital Markets

- Do not act or cause others to act on any material, non-public information that may have been obtained.
- Do not engage in practices that distort prices or artificially inflate trading volume with the intent to mislead market participants.